At Midnight Last Night the Free Sugar Section

OF THE WM. M'KINLEY BILL

Went Into Effect-The Only Redeeming Feature of the Measure-Theo. Havemeyer and Claus Spreckles Come to an Agreement.

Benefited by the McKinley Bill.

New York, March 31.-The only clause McKinley bill which people of this have to be thankful for is the free section, which takes effect at midsection, which takes effect at mat-tenight, and in consequence the efficient and in consequence the enethird lower than it has been in time. Although higher prices for things affected went into effect im-ity upon the passage of the bill, the ing of the cost of sugar was postponed.

the law all sugars below No. 16 andard are free, and as these are of the sugars which are imported, theople will have to pay to-morrow about comes per pound less for their sugar than key pay to-day, and considering the imochee amount of sugar used it means a cut saving. Sugar has been refined and happed to bond to all parts of the United , and will be released at midnight to-

There will be plenty of werk for truck from te-mind, as many of the large dealers made arrangements to begin delivering at 1 consecration of the morning, and more men will probably be at work to-night than its usual seem in the baseat seasons of the year.

Of the many thousand grocers in the city those will sea low who will not be out all might to get a stack of free sight in order not to be undergoed by meightons. te underseld by neighbors, suffortibes of the custom house will have deputies at the warehouses where deits ries are to be made, and in addition men who be at the railroad cars, etc., through-out the country in order to release supar when minimuch closes. In fact te-night win be a busy one for all dealers who are interested in any way in the sale of sugar.

Territory Divided.

Sax Francisco, Cal., March 31.—Theo-ore Envenierer, head of the big sugar-ust, has just left for home after making a intract that will end the long war which atract that will east the long war which has Spreckles and his sons have waged on a trust. The hasis of the agreement is a ration of territory. Spreckle agrees to tire from Philadelphia and contine his gar refining to this coast, and to self no gar reast of the Rocky mountains. Have yer agrees not to interfere with sugar saltors, well of the Rockies. as west of the Rockies

The Report Denied.

New York, March 31.—A dispatch from see cleaning a stating that Theodore Have-beyer has made an agreement with Claus sureskies, nivioing the territory, caused a horp advance in the price of sugar stock. Michais of trust however, deny the statement. Neither H. O. Havemeyer nor choosers Havemeyer have been on the tacific coast recently. H. C. Havemeyer and "There isn't one word of truth in it."

Sugar securities were the noticeable features of the opening of our stock market. The report that the American company, successor to the trust, has made a territorial arrangement with Claus Spreckels was the cause of the strength and activity of shares of the American company. The general stock market was firm all to-thy although the enthusinsm of yesterday was lacking. The buoyance of vesterday was lacking. The buoyance of vesterday was due, as much as to any one thing, to the belief that interesting developments about Western raircoads will soon be made public. The day was peculiarly an interesting one. Posted rates for exchange on Paris was drawn to-day. This was in consequence of

LICENSE REVOKED.

The Capital Insurance Company of Kansas-The Company's Claim. TOPEKA, KAN . March 31 .- D. W. Wilder state insurant commissioner, has revoked the license of the Capital insurance com-pany, mutual, on the ground that the com-pany is insolvent. He says that the liabilities of the company are $24,000 and that the company has on hand only $800 to meet its obligations. The officers of the company say the concern is in a perfectly solvent condition, and will appeal to the courts in an attempt to force Wilder to reverse the order.

Special to the Gazette

Sherman, Tex., March 31.—Archie Derrish, a Canadian, was to-day adjudged insane, caused by illness—neuralgia of the stomach. He has been refusing stimulants for some time and barely takes enough to keep him alive. He is a tailor and has been a man of rare intelligence. William Trumbo was sent to the asylum at Terrell to-day. He is the boy who tried to shoot himself at Whitesboro recently. The negro porter who caught Conductor
Brown in his arms when shot on the Central train, has been brought before Charles Parker, now in jail, and says that he cannot positively identify the man.

Dennis Watson, indicted for the murder of Charlie Bean at Elmont, was admitted to bond in the sum of $2000 to-day under a writ of habeas corpus.
